

ANGRY SENATORS

The sale of American warplanes to France this week stirred up a turbulent argument in Congress as members weighed the implications of a foreign policy frankly aimed at helping the democracies of the world against the dictator countries.

On all sides there is demand for further investigation of Roosevelt's international and armament plans. Meanwhile, the administrator's course was stoutly defended by Senator Barkley, the Democratic leader.

The whole affair, however, indicates serious bickering and chaos at home. This situation will, of course, do nothing to iron out grave international dangers.

SPAIN

Franco had apparently won the war in Spain this week. However, if he sees the wisdom in the words of Loyalist General Vicente Rojo, it is doubtful that he feels especially victorious.

Rojo said, "You can conquer more ground with material strength, but you cannot conquer the people. Even if you succeed in crushing us you could be sure that from the ruins of our cities and the bones of our dead there would rise the ideal of liberty and independence which is fed by the blood of our soldiers."

AND MORE WAR

Nelson Trusler Johnson, able and well-informed U. S. Ambassador to China, back in Washington, reported that Chinese morale is excellent, and Chinese hopes for ousting the Japanese are high.

In Chungking, Sun Fo, President of the Chinese Legislative Yuan, son of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen, substantiated Mr. Johnson: "Our prospects are progressively brighter. We fight on with growing confidence, new unity and new strength."

PETERSON NAMES CITIZENS GROUP TO MAKE STUDY

Cities Need for Clarification In Certain Phases Of Charter

Appointment of a citizens' committee to launch an immediate study of the county charter to the end of permanently eliminating legal loopholes, overlapping provisions and ambiguities in the county's organic law, was announced Tuesday by Executive Fred Peterson.

Should the group feel amendments necessary to clarify the charter, they can be submitted to the people at the regular elections in 1940, Peterson said. Civic leaders and public officials from virtually every section of the county make up the charter study commission.

Personnel

Appointments included: Pansy Jewett Abbott of San Mateo, county superintendent of schools and member of the defunct qualification board set up by the original charter to pass on candidates for county executive.

Lewis C. Merrell, San Mateo, president of the San Mateo-Burlingame realty board.

Eric Alsford, San Gregorio merchant and civic leader.

Frank A. Bloom, city treasurer-purchasing agent of Burlingame.

Henry Witte, Redwood City realtor and civic leader.

Richard T. McAllister, San Mateo, president of the County Central Labor council.

Dr. F. S. Gregory, Redwood City physician.

E. F. McGuire, mayor of San Bruno.

A. J. Eschelbach, mayor of South San Francisco.

Paul G. Selmi, mayor of Daly City.

W. H. Morrissey, Redwood City attorney.

Should Be Clarified

"I believe the charter as it stands now is overlapping in certain respects and should be clarified," said Executive Peterson. "I have asked these citizens to form a commission to study the charter thoroughly and make their recommendations as to what amendments they deem necessary to achieve a business-like setup in our county government."

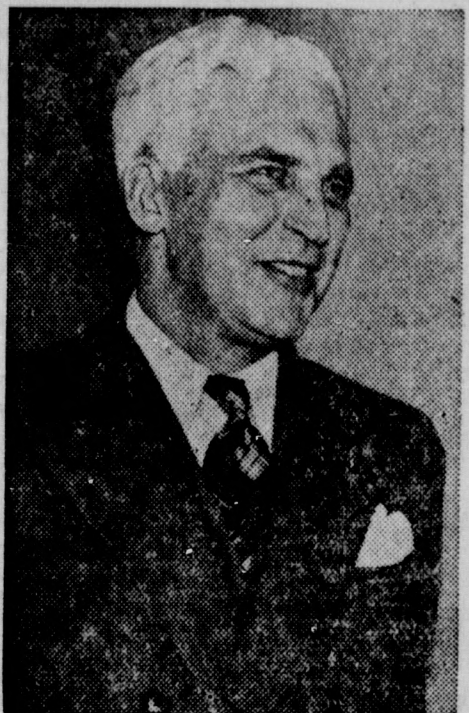

Act Independently

"I desire above everything else that they should act independently of my office or any other county office in making their findings," the executive said.

He said the commission's personnel would also include a representative of District Attorney Ferrell's office to render legal advice.

Peterson did not attempt to identify or enumerate the charter clauses or provisions he believes are overlapping or ambiguous.

McNutt to Run

Paul V. McNutt, United States high commissioner to the Philippines and former governor of Indiana will leave his Manila post next Tuesday to return to the mainland and open his campaign for the 1940 Democratic presidential nomination. McNutt headquarters have already been opened at Indianapolis by his manager, Frank McHale.

S. F. World Fair Includes 35 Foreign Nations

The greatest international show in the history of World's Fairs will greet the public this month at the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island, where 35 foreign lands will be represented.

Foreign participation outranks that at any Exposition ever held in the United States, including the Chicago World's Fair of 1933-34, and the Panama-Pacific International Exposition of 1915.

Twenty-two foreign nations and two United States territories have their own individual pavilions, representative in each case of the architecture of the country. Eleven other foreign nations will be represented by comprehensive exhibits in the International Palace which adjoins the foreign outdoor area.

Cultural Aspects

Exhibits in every case will be built around cultural rather than commercial aspects of the nations, and will include arts, customs, and recreations of the people and distinctive native crafts. Particular emphasis will be placed on scenic attractions in the interest of tourism.

Outside pavilions have been erected by the Netherlands, East Indies, Brazil, Mexico, Argentina, New Zealand, Ecuador, Peru, Chile, Guatemala, French Indo-China, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Australia, France, Venezuela, Italy, Panama, the Philippines, Johore, Norway, Colombia and Japan, and the United States territories of Hawaii and Alaska. Countries exhibiting in the International Palace include Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Bulgaria, Greece, Sweden, Czechoslovakia, Turkey, Portugal, and Hungary.

Debate Cow Palace Fate at Sacramento

Governor Olson and various departments concerned are considering the fate of the unfinished "cow palace," located on the San Francisco-San Mateo county line. Director of Finance Phil Gibson told the governor's council Monday in Sacramento.

Director of Public Works Frank W. Clark brought up the matter, recommending that the administration take steps to "liquidate" the state's huge investment in the building.

Gibson said the department of finance was considering whether to allow funds for completion of the structure, and the state relief administration is also concerned as most of the persons employed on the project would go on relief if the building is not finished.

LAWDALE ORGANIST SUCCUMBS TUESDAY

Alexander Gutman, Collins avenue, Lawndale, passed away at his home Tuesday night. Mr. Gutman for the past several years had been an organist at Cypress Lawn cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Katherine C. Gutman, also an organist at Cypress Lawn; a son, Joseph A. Gutman, Los Angeles; and a daughter, Mrs. A. W. Hillback, Palo Alto.

Funeral services were held this morning (Friday) at 10:30 a. m. at the Ashley and McMullen funeral home. Interment was at Cypress Lawn.

Directory Nears Completion

Valuable facts, accurate statistics and interesting Daly City history will soon be at the fingertips of local residents in compact form.

Work on the 1939 Daly City directory is rapidly progressing, with merchants, organization heads and civic leaders showing unequalled enthusiasm in cooperating with the staff of the Daly City Record to make the directory the finest booklet ever published on Daly City commercial, civic and fraternal subjects.

Everything of interest to local residents as well as to all others interested in this locality will be fully covered in compact form for the first time.

Complete Map

History, schools, organizations, churches, city officials, a complete map of Daly City, city departments and many other subjects will make up the directory. Pictures will play a large part in the book's make-up.

A complete classified business directory, listing everything from artichokes to trailer space, is but another of the many helpful features of the directory.

At least 48 pages will compose the booklet, and perhaps more. The directory will be off the press and ready for personal distribution during the World's Fair premiere.

If We've Missed You

With some 250 business houses to contact in the short time before the directory goes to press, the Daly City Record advertising representative may have failed to call upon you. In this case, phone the Record, RAAndolph 3215, and a member of the staff will call to explain details of advertising and classified business listing to you. The editorial staff of the directory has also been working against pressing deadlines and urges that any organization which has not been contacted directly, call at the office at once and immediate attention will be given its needs.

Ten Thousand

Ten thousand copies of the directory are to be published. One will be delivered free to each home here. One will be given to every new family which comes to live in this community. Five thousand more will be distributed to World's Fair visitors to tell the world about Daly City.

Dr. Gans To Head Ambulance Study

Dr. Charles Gans was recently appointed to head a committee to study the ambulance situation in San Mateo county, paying particular attention to equipment, standardization and the training of personnel. His committee will also investigate the possibility of contracts with private hospitals for handling the care of accident victims.

"Our problem," Dr. Gans announced to The Record, "is not the fact that adequate hospital and ambulance facilities aren't available—it is rather the fact that rapid systematic methods of calling ambulances to the scene of an accident have not been adopted and put into effect."

Alarm Boxes

"An ideal solution to the problem has been worked out in Eastern states by the installation of alarm boxes along the highways. Passers-by or uninjured occupants of an automobile crash can call ambulance service immediately at these alarm boxes which are located at convenient intervals."

DEPUTY COLLECTOR HERE FEB. 16, 17, 18

For the convenience of those who are required by law to file Federal Income Tax returns, a deputy collector of Internal Revenue will be at Bank of America, Daly City, February 16, 17, 18, to assist taxpayers in preparing their returns. No charge will be made for this service. The matter of filing income tax returns should be given immediate attention, in order to avoid penalty and interest, it was suggested by the treasury department.

"Persons are required to file a return if their net income is $1,000 or over or if their gross income is $5,000 or over and are single (or married and not living with husband or wife) or if married and living with husband or wife and their net income is $2,500 or over or if gross income is $5,000 or over," the report said.

NEW PLAYGROUND PROVES POPULAR

Latest reports from the Daly City Recreation department indicate that the newly-opened playground at Acton and Brunswick streets has proven itself a major success. The attendance record for January 30 showed a total enrollment of 202 children between the ages of 6 and 16 years enjoying supervised play in the new city park.

According to Jerry Hull, recreation director, the play equipment is in almost constant use. As many as 42 youngsters have been counted at one time on the merry-go-round; while the parallel bars, ladders, swings and see-saws are always crowded to the limit.

The entire area is under the supervision of a recreation leader every school-day from 1:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m., and on Saturdays from 9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Council Caucus Considers Details

To consider details of inaugurating bus service for Daly City and of installing a city sewer to serve property owners along the eastern side of Junipero Serra boulevard, north of School street, was the chief purpose of the Board of Council caucus meeting Monday evening.

Estimates for renting buses were considered too high by members of the board. A proposal was made to buy second-hand buses and hire local drivers to run trial tests.

Property owners along Junipero Serra boulevard attended and discussed the proposed sewer installation to serve their needs. No definite agreement was made as to prorating the cost of installing a sewer.

Make Final Report On SM Roll Call

The American Red Cross made its final report of the Twenty-Second Roll Call of the San Mateo county chapter this week. The report shows that a total of $11,666.62 was collected from memberships and donations in San Mateo county during 1938. Of this amount, $345.50 was provided by Daly City.

One half of all memberships and of all donations under a dollar will be sent to the national fund. The rest of the sum, in this case $8,448.23 or the major part of the total collections, will remain in San Mateo county to be devoted to local needs.

The American Red Cross wishes to extend its thanks to the public who responded so generously and to the Roll Call workers whose untiring efforts made this response possible.

Local People Hurt In Accidents

Gus Puricelli, 43, proprietor of the Geneva Bakery, San Pedro road, Colma, was gravely injured Wednesday evening when his automobile skidded off the highway and struck a tree near Rockaway Beach.

Puricelli was rushed to the Villa hospital by ambulance where physicians announced a possible skull fracture, chest and internal injuries, and lacerations.

Badly burned about the face, arms, and body by the explosion of a bottle of rubbing alcohol, Mrs. Adel Beckman, 34, 725 Grove street, San Francisco, was taken by ambulance to Junipero Serra hospital Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Beckman, a nurse, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rowe, 174 Winchester street, when the accident occurred. Rowe hastily threw a rug around Mrs. Beckman to extinguish the flames. He was also burned about the hands and arms.

JEFF HI TO PLAY SAN MATEO TONIGHT

Jefferson Union high school varsity basketball team clashes with San Mateo tonight for Jefferson's fourth league of the season. The varsity has lost three games out of three. The 130's team have won one and lost two. Jefferson's 130's team is favored to win while the varsity teams of Jefferson and San Mateo will battle it out for the Cellar Championship. All reports point to an exciting game. The Indians have a home court advantage. Lembi's Indians of Rhythm will probably entertain between quarters. A large crowd is expected.

"Festivity and Color Everywhere" Is Chamber of Commerce Slogan for Festival

LAY PLANS FOR GIANT THEATRE PARTY

The good old days 80 years ago when wind-jammers crowded San Francisco bay, miners were gouging away at mother earth in search of gold, cowboys roamed the range under California stars, and a sack of flour cost $50 in yellow metal—that will be Daly City during the World Fair Premiere starting February 18.

Brilliant colored shirts, huge sombreros, chaps, and whiskers for men—bright printed dresses and colorful head-wear for ladies—participation in cavalcades, horseback tours, and a gala all-western theater party for the entire town—that is what the chamber of commerce committee has planned for Daly City activities during the premiere.

"Festivity and Color on Every Hand" is the slogan here for the world fair celebration.

"The Town Show" at Daly City theater, Friday evening, February 17, will be the central local activity. Entries in a whiskey derby and a ladies costume contest will be judged at "The Town Show." Twenty one-dollar grub stakes will be awarded free as door prizes. All-western screen features and sure-fire vaudeville acts are scheduled for the show. It is to be the grandest, most colorful, fastest moving, and most hilarious affair ever staged in Daly City.

Committeemen advise that reservations for "The Town Show" be made early to avoid the stampede at Daly City theater on Friday evening, February 17.

These plans were laid before the Daly City Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors Wednesday evening at their regular February meeting. Enthusiastic approval was given the activity committee and the "Go" signal rang for a glorious celebration here.

L. E. Gehm, representing the United States Chamber of Commerce, attended the board meeting and outlined the work and activities of the U. S. Chamber.

Finance Committee, headed by John Sireix, submitted a $600 1939 budget which was approved by the board without alteration.

Paul Selmi, chairman of the transportation committee, reported that progress was being made in arranging to have a bus system inaugurated here in the immediate future.

Make 1938 Report On Payments To Unemployed

Unemployed workers in California, out of jobs through no fault of their own, benefited to the extent of $23,757,218.36 as the result of unemployment compensation payments during the year 1938.

This announcement was made Monday by Carl L. Hyde, executive director of the State Department of Employment, who said that during the eleven months of check writing in 1938, a total of 2,484,311 payments had been made to claimants in all sections of the state.

The department, Hyde said, can report on only eleven months of check writing, as January 1938 was the first month in which claims were taken, and represented the first four week waiting period.

In San Mateo

During 1938, the total sum of $227,162.15 was paid claimants in San Mateo county, in 22,455 checks, according to reports issued by the department, while in December, there were 2,099 checks issued representing the sum of $20,800.48.

Average check issued for total unemployment benefits during the year amounted to $10.53, according to computations made by the department. This average, of course, does not include payments for partial unemployment, the average of which amounted to approximately $5.53 each.

Cold Snap Hits Peninsula Area

The coldest weather in five years froze water pipes in parts of the Peninsula Tuesday night, spread an icy film on wet roads, froze radiators in cars left out all night and brought practical assurance that the Peninsula will experience its best white winter in history.

Forecast of continued cold weather and the unusually heavy fall of snow in the Kings Mountain area and below to the Santa Cruz county line promised sleigh riders and skiers plenty of opportunity for their activity for the rest of the week and probably over the week-end.

Batista Travels

Colonel Fulgencio Batista, "strong man" and head of the Cuban army, arrived yesterday at Mexico City for secret consultation with Mexico's Dictator-President Lázaro Cardenas. Batista recently made a similar journey to Washington.

GROUP TO URGE DIVIDED ROAD FOR BAYSHORE

San Francisco Chamber Of Commerce Has Pledged Aid

A divided road for the entire length of Bayshore highway will be urged by large delegations from both San Mateo county and San Francisco when the state holds its regular meeting at Sacramento today (Friday).

The San Francisco chamber of commerce pledged itself to the cause in a letter received by the San Mateo chamber Wednesday morning. The letter declared the San Francisco group would send a delegation to back up a resolution which has already been sent to the commission urging the divided highway.

"Numerous county organizations have signified their support of the move in resolutions sent to the highway commission but it will take a personal appeal to win immediate action," said Gilbert Keitle, secretary of the San Mateo chamber.

Meet In Sacramento

Keitle said the San Mateo and San Francisco groups would meet in Sacramento before the commission meeting and map the appeal to be made. Civic leaders and city officials of all cities along the Peninsula were asked to join the caravan seeking division of Bayshore highway.

LICENSE PLATE PERIOD WILL END SATURDAY

This is the final week of the 1939 period for renewing automobile registration and securing new license plates. The period ends at midnight tomorrow (Saturday). Car owners who fail to apply before that time will have to pay heavily increased fees as a penalty.

With expiration of the period the registration fee will jump from the regular $3 to the penalty figure of $6 and the amount of vehicle license fee based on car value will increase by 50 per cent.

With many car owners yet to apply, the closing days are witnessing a heavy rush at plate issuing offices.

Plates are being issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles at offices in various cities and by the California State Automobile association to member motorists at 33 district offices.

The application procedure requires presentation of the 1938 certificate of registration. The postcard notice of total fees due also should be presented to save time.

Keep Windshield Clear!

One of the hazards that make stormy and foggy weather driving dangerous, the National Safety council warns, is a windshield blocked with weather stains on the outside or clouded with vapor on the inside.

Even at a snail's pace, you can not afford not to see what is coming ahead of you. And it is not enough just to have a small spot of the windshield clear. If the corners of your windshield are fogged, you're trusting to luck on turns—and there may be a time when your luck won't be good enough to avoid an accident.

Hiway Patrol Chief Answers All Traffic Questions

Chief E. Raymond Cato, California Highway Patrol, each week conducts a traffic question-and-answer column. The public is cordially invited to submit their queries to the chief at Sacramento. Answers to the letters will appear at an early date.

Following are this week's questions and answers.

Q—Several times recently I have narrowly missed some youngster riding a bicycle just after dusk. I was unable to see them because the bicycles were not equipped with any sort of light. What can be done about that? T. L.

A—Parents and teachers can do much in this matter by seeing to it that their children take necessary steps to protect themselves. A white light visible to the front at night and a red reflector attached to the rear of the bicycle, which will be brightened by oncoming lights, is all that is necessary. That is the law.

Q—Are metal tires still allowed on motor vehicles? M. A. H.

A—Yes; but the speed of such vehicles is limited to 6 miles per hour.

Q—Near where I live there is a narrow paved road that, in wet weather, becomes dangerous because the shoulders become slippery. One of the neighbors has a habit of parking his car in front of his house so that when I want to pass I have to take a chance in running one side of my car with the wheels off the highway. Is such parking as above outlined permitted? C. O. M. jr.

A—The law states that in no event shall any person stop, park or leave standing any vehicle whether attended or unattended, upon any highway outside of a business or residence district unless not less than fifteen feet of the width of the paved or improved or main traveled portion of the highway opposite such vehicle is left clear and unobstructed for the free passage of motor vehicles.

CCC Program Seen Vital to Forests

Regional Forester S. B. Show, directing the administration of the 18 national forests in California and western Nevada, says that the value of the CCC to conservation and forest protection in the west cannot be overestimated.

"We need many more CCC camps in California," Show recently stated at Forest Service regional headquarters in San Francisco. "We have only started to win our battle against the three horsemen of forest destruction—fire, insects and disease. Fire still rides over our major watersheds, insect infestations continually threaten the forests, blister rust is advancing on valuable sugar pine stands because funds and manpower have been insufficient to fight the blight." American forests have suffered staggering losses from forest fires in recent years. Less dramatic but none the less serious is the fight against insects and disease, the silent enemies of forest destruction.

Private Forests

In addition to protection of publicly owned forests the CCC has made possible the expansion of protection from forest fire, insects and disease on privately owned timberlands, said Show. This has been carried on through State and Federal cooperation with private land owners under the provisions of the cooperative forest protection act known as the Clarke-McNary law.

"Forests Protected by the CCC" and "Forest Improvements by the CCC" are two pamphlets of a series being issued by the Civilian Conservation Corps to give a general picture of its work program. The pamphlets describe projects done by the CCC under the direction of the Forest Service and other Federal and State conservation agencies. Subjects include forest protection, reforestation, forest improvement and wildlife operations. The two publications are available for free distribution from Forest Service headquarters in San Francisco, Regional Forester Show announced.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Spirit" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, February 5, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Golden Text will be: "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (II Cor. 3: 17). Other Bible citations will include: "Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed" (Acts 8: 5-7).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The spiritual reality is the scientific fact in all things. The spiritual fact, repeated in the action of man and the whole universe, is harmonious and is the ideal of Truth. Spiritual facts are not inverted; the opposite discord, which bears no resemblance to spirituality, is not real" (p. 207).

Announce Date For School Week

Public Schools Week this year will be observed beginning Monday, April 24, according to a proclamation issued in San Francisco recently by Leon O. Whitsell, grand master of Masons of California and addressed to the 130,000 members of the order in the state.

The coming celebration marks the twentieth annual observance of the event. The week was originally established to call public attention to, and aid in correcting, a critical condition in the public schools due to a shortage of teaching personnel caused by war conditions. Its purpose each year is to keep the general public informed of the work being done by the schools.

The observance is conducted in cooperation with the Parent-Teacher associations, the American Legion, women's organizations, chambers of commerce, and other service and civic groups.

It was estimated last year from attendance reports that over 1,000,000 citizens over the state attended meetings in public school auditoriums.

MEALS WITH MUSTARD

Mrs. Homemaker looked anxiously at the Menu Doctor. "Can you tell me what seems to be wrong with my meals, Doctor," she inquired, "now that you've examined them? I'm sure I serve them regularly three times a day and they are just as substantial and nourishing as I know how to make them."

"Yes, yes," replied the Menu Doctor soothingly, "don't be alarmed. There is nothing much wrong with either your meals or your menus. Just a trifle below par, perhaps. Here, I'll write you a prescription that will pep them up considerably," and down on the pad went just two words: More mustard!

Joking aside, there is nothing like a jar of prepared mustard to add interest and zest to the average meal. Prepared mustard is not to be confused with dry mustard which the housewife mixes at her own discretion. Confronted with a bewildering array of little jars and bottles, she is at a loss to know just how to blend them all together to achieve the same palate-satisfying product that can be obtained simply by getting a jar of prepared mustard right off the grocer's shelf!

One of the best uses that prepared mustard can be put to is a Creamy Mustard Sauce. It can be served hot with boiled tongue, corned beef, salmon or tuna fish loaf, or with such vegetables as cauliflower, spinach, and beets.

CREAMY MUSTARD SAUCE

1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks
1 cup hot milk, scalded
1/4 cup prepared mustard
2 tablespoons vinegar
Dash tabasco

Add sugar and salt to egg yolks and beat thoroughly. Add to the milk in the double boiler. Blend mustard, vinegar, and tabasco, and add slowly to the milk mixture. Place over boiling water and cook until thick, stirring constantly. This makes 1 1/2 cups.

If you want to make a man happy, see that every so often you set before him one of those substantial he-man dishes such as boiled tongue, corn beef and cabbage, or boiled brisket of beef, with mashed turnips. But to give just the right flip to the meal, the meat should be accompanied by a spicy, tangy sauce, such as:

VEGETABLE MUSTARD SAUCE

1/4 cup finely diced carrots
1/4 cup finely diced onions
1/4 cup finely diced celery
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 1/2 cups hot meat broth (or 1 1/2 cups boiling water and 1 bouillon cube)
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 tablespoon flour

Place carrots, onions, celery, salt, pepper, and meat stock in a pan. Cover, and simmer for 20 minutes. Blend the prepared mustard and flour, add to the vegetable mixture, and cook five minutes more. This makes 1 cup of sauce.

Next time you have to prepare a buffet supper or an after-skating party for a group of hungry young people, serve them frankfurters. Not just plain, everyday ones, but frankfurters that are all dressed up and ready to go places and do things. For instance, split the frankfurters and place them in a skillet with plenty of butter and a sliver of garlic. Sauté to a light brown. Then add an equal quantity of prepared mustard and blend with the browned butter. Roll each frankfurter in the delicious sauce and serve very hot. Potato salad is an excellent accompaniment.

FIESTA TO CULMINATE SPANISH WEEK

An exhibit of vitamin B concentrates made from rice polishings, which serve the essential wants of child refugees in the fighting zones of Spain, will be one of the features of the Spanish Fiesta at Dreamland auditorium February 11. The fiesta will be the culminating occasion of the "Milk For Babies of Spain Week," February 6-11.

The vitamin B concentrate is a pleasant tasting syrup that contains all the vitamin B complex. Long ago natural sources of vitamin B, the meat, the vegetables and the fruits were destroyed in this war stricken country, which meant that many children must perish from malnutrition or suffer from its attendant evils of pellagra and beri-beri.

Science has come to the rescue in the person of Professor Lefkowskie, the well-known vitamin B chemist. His recommended vitamin B syrup can be sent to Spain in ten gallon tins with instructions in Spanish. In schools and refugee camps this tin can stands at the door and the children can be given a spoonful each morning. One shipment has already left this country for Spain.

Spring Term Starts At San Mateo Jaysee

With registration for the spring term completed this week at the San Mateo junior college, class instruction will start Monday. While the college saw some of its students leave through graduation, the vacant places were more than filled by the numerous students who enrolled as freshmen, following their recent completion of their high school years.

Heading the college studentbody this semester is Harry Prongos, newly elected president from Daly City. Recommended to the position of editor of the college paper, The San Matean, is Otto Tallent, Redwood City, sports editor last semester and former staff reporter.

At the recent Pacific Athletic association indoor track meet in San Francisco, the jaysees won the mile relay race and the high jump also. Les Steers of the jaysees jumped six feet seven inches, winning his event with ease.

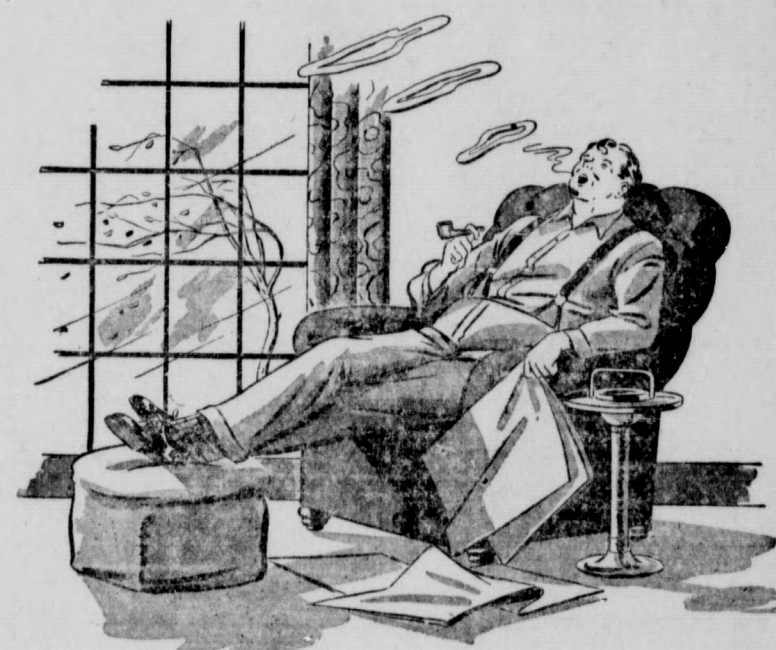

Tonight (Friday) the junior college basketball team will play Salinas jaysee at San Mateo in a conference game. The Mateans opened the league with two wins over Santa Rosa.

Enrollment in the college evening classes shows a fifteen per cent increase over past records with more students entering each week. Over 1400 adults have been in attendance at the evening sessions.

With Dell Fishback, new track coach and instructor, starting full time work at the college, regular track practice will get underway for the numerous meets that are to be held this term. The tracksters will compete in meets with other junior colleges, in events in San Francisco and Treasure Island, at the Fresno relays, and in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Glasner, 57 Como street, are the proud parents of a daughter, born January 22.

Daly City Theatre Shows Spectacular Screen Romance

Tyrone Power, Loretta Young And Annabella Star In Drama

When earth, air and water all let go at once in a terrific Sahara simoon in Twentieth Century-Fox's spectacular "Suez," audiences at the Daly City theatre get an emotional wallop seldom equalled on the screen.

The zobah-hah, or devil-wind, is a desert hurricane of savage violence. Raging across the dunes, it whips up huge clouds of sand as it travels. The force of the blast changes the terrain miraculously, piling up mountains of sand where once were valleys, completely obliterating caravan routes and even wiping out many of the pitifully few oases.

This ferocious wind was Nature's greatest weapon of defense in the battle waged upon her by the amazing Ferdinand de Lesseps, the man who literally tore continents apart to create the canal that has become the jugular vein of the world. De Lesseps, who fought political and financial discouragement, who successfully withstood attacks by hostile Arabs, who overcame the hardships of landslides, lack of water and tropical heat, found his cherished dream almost shattered by the simoon.

Tyrone Power plays the remarkable role of de Lesseps. Loretta Young and Annabella share top honors with him in portraying the two loves that drove the French genius on to the completion of his great project.

The supreme effort of the elements to prevent the joining of the Mediterranean with the Red Sea comes with dramatic impact at the climax of "Suez." It is new proof that earth, air, fire and water—once thought to be the elements that constituted man and his environment—are among the basic elements of man's entertainment.

Darryl F. Zanuck, in charge of production for "Suez," assigned the same staff of miracle workers that created the great fire for "In Old Chicago" to reproduce the simoon in all its fury. Not just a "big wind," the zobah-hah is accompanied by a huge black cloud that hangs a short distance above the ground and envelops everything in its path in a thick pall. Reproducing the swirling wall of sand was another problem faced by Director Allan Dwan and his technicians.

The scene of their labors was 20 acres of man-made desert on the Twentieth Century-Fox lot. There they started a gale that raged for ten days in intensities that varied from 30 to 70 miles an hour. They blotted out the sun entirely with the brooding black cloud typical of the devil-wind, a phenomenon whose creation is one of Hollywood's most carefully guarded secrets.

There is a clue to the cause for the sudden stopping of the engine in the manner in which it dies, declares L. G. Evans, general service manager of the National Automobile Club. If the carburetor system is out of order, the stopping will be marked by a sputtering or backfiring—a sign of fuel starvation. That caused by some fault in the electrical system is sudden, abrupt and silent.

Seventeenth District Gives Study Series

Challenging the interest of all members, one of the most important series of parental education conferences sponsored by Seventeenth district, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., had its inception last Wednesday morning, February 1, at 10 o'clock, in the Little Theater of the Burlingame high school. Doctor John Conrad Almack, well-known Stanford University School of Education professor, was the speaker.

Scheduled as a study of children of elementary, high school and junior college age groups, the series will be developed by speakers, round table discussions, symposiums and audience participation. Feature of the classes will be a "question and answer" period. The first three meetings will deal with the elementary school age child, the next three with the high school group and the last two with the junior college youth. There will be eight meetings in all.

Members holding San Mateo junior college Adult Center cards may be admitted to the classes free of charge; others will pay a small fee for the entire course. Superintendent Lester D. Henderson, William Van Voris, principal of Burlingame high school, and Charles Morris, dean of the junior college, will make arrangements for the speakers. Further information may be obtained by calling the district parent education chairman, Mrs. L. H. Bissett, 1509 Newlands avenue, Burlingame.

Headquarters of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers will be moved to Chicago from Washington D. C. some time before the close of the fiscal year, April 14. This information was received by Mrs. James K. Lytle, president of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. J. K. Pettengill, national president, appointed a special committee last May to study headquarters. Their final recommendations were brought before the National Executive Committee meeting in Cincinnati earlier this month. The fact that approximately one third of a million members on the west coast are three thousand miles from the Washington office was a basic reason for the change. The California Congress has a membership of 237,605.

MUST USE HEADLIGHTS WHEN DRIVING IN FOG

Arrest of motorists for failure to use their headlights while driving through fog when visibility is reduced was directed this week by Chief E. Raymond Cato, of the California Highway patrol, following the receipt of numerous complaints of this menace.

Motorists were warned that the California Vehicle code requires the use of headlights one-half hour after sun-set until one-half hour before sunrise, and at all other times when visibility is such that persons or objects on the highways cannot be clearly seen within 200 feet.

To Stop Vehicles

District inspectors were ordered by Chief Cato to have officers on duty in places where fog is prevalent at this time of year and to stop all vehicles which do not use their headlights and taillights.

The use of cowl lights as a substitute for headlights, it was pointed out, is illegal. The use of approved fog lamps as a substitute for headlights however is permitted by the vehicle code under such conditions, Cato pointed out.

"Many motorists apparently fail to realize the danger to themselves and others by driving through foggy weather without using their headlights as the law requires. The use of the small cowl lights, which are generally equipped with three candle-power bulbs, is entirely inadequate and a dangerous practice. Our officers have been instructed to take immediate steps to reduce this hazard."

BATTERY WATER

Allow space for gas pressure when water is added to the storage battery in your car advises the Emergency Road Service of the California State Automobile Association. As the temperature of the battery solution increases, expansion takes place. This expansion, together with increased pressure due to gassing while the motor is running, has a tendency to force acid out through the vents. When this happens, battery efficiency is reduced.
